Persons wanting the Evening Star in Baltimore, can procure it early every afternoon at Henry Taylor's Newspaper Depot, "Sun Iron Buildings."

THE WEEKLY STAR. This journal improves with the issue of each number. To-day's issue is hard to excel. I is not only a complete history of Washington for the past week, detailing all our local and governmental affairs worth knowing, but it is also a complete index of the deings in all parts of our widely extended country as well as the affairs of the old world. In addition to its character as a nonpareil newspaper, the Weekly Star always contains choice selections of tales, poetry and anecdotes, making the paper interesting and entertaining to all classes

SPIRIT OF THE MORNING PRESS The Union inquires into the cause of the defeat of the Democracy in the late elections. The editor says it is owing to abolitionism. whigism, and know nothingism, aided by disaffected Democrats. Right, there, old True Penny! He demonstrates that no man can properly claim to be a Democrat who is a Know Nothing. He also holds up fidelity to the Democratic organization as a prime duty There was one element of Democratic weak pess in the late elections which the editor fails to perceive—that is, bad nominations of Demoeratic grog-shop-caucus packed conventions, who put up the tools of grog-shop loafers, and others more or less like them, for Congress in was the case in the district now represented by Mr. Witte, of Pennsylvania, the man, Phillips named as his successor, being a very improper person to be sent to Congress, we hear. We might name half a dozen such cases. The truth is, the convention system in the Demoto serve only the purposes of the worst por tion of the community. While the editor of the Union is preaching in favor of the party organization, he would be doing good by boldly censuring its use by sinister men for sinister purposes at times, to which much of the current disaffection to that organization among thorough Democrats in principle is justly chargeable. The organ further congratulates the Democracy on the fact, that in the late election in Pennsylvania, Reah Frazer and David Wilmet went clean over to the other party, which, in itself, is really full compensation for all the Democracy lost in their rout there.

The Intelligencer devetes six columns to review of the doctrine of General Jackson, that he was to interpret the Constitution as he understood it, not as the Supreme Court might declare it to be-on which Mr. Senator Sumner planted himself in justifying his senatorial tergiversations.

VERNORT LEGISLATURE .- Both branches of the Legislature of Vermont assembled at Montpelier on Thursday, and organized without delay. The Senate elected H. Barrett, of Middlebury, Clerk, and Mr. Chapman of Ludlow, Assistant Clerk. Both are "fusionists." In the House, G. W. Grandy, of Vergennes, was chosen speaker on the first ballot by the fol lowing vote: Grandy, (whig.) 141; Bartlett, (democrat,) 50; McLean, (freesoiler,) 23; scattering, 4. James Slade, of Middlebury, was unanimously elected Clerk of the House C H. Hayden, of Rutland, has been appointed to the office of Secretary of Civil and Military price, which properly expended by the Span-Affairs, by the new Governor, Hon. Stephen Royce.

The Governor's message was delivered yesterday.

INDIANA ELECTION -- Mace, elected to Congrees from the eighth district, is no: a regular Democrat, but run as an independent, anti Nebraska, Know-Nothing candidate, against Dr. James Davis, Democrat. Col. Lane wa not a candidate in the fourth district. Judge Holman was the Democratic nominee, and was defeated by Crumback, anti-Nebraska. In the eleventh, not the tenth district as reported by telegraph, Petit, anti-Nebraska, defeated Slack, Democrat. Mr. Harlan, the presen member, was not a candidate. Schuyler Col fax and John Sherman, Whigs, are also

SOUTH CAROLINA .- The election in this State took place on the 10th inst. Wm. Aiken, Dem. was re elected to Congress in the Charleston District, without much opposition. Five Demberats are doubtless elected in the other districts as usual, but we have no particulars John L. Preston is elected to the State Senate in Columbia district, and M. C. Mordecai ir the Charleston district.

If, in less than a week, we do not have to record a bill of mortality, including double or treble the number reported above, there will be reason for rejoicing; provided yesterday's damp, foggy morning, and subsequent heat, shall be a few times Yellow fever is still here, and the warm weather highly favorable to its spread among strangers. Strangers are warned to stay away from Savannah in the following terms: We hope that we shall not be charged with inhospitality, if we say that the presence of these persons at this early day is by no means welcome. They will only serve to perpetuate the terrible malady, whose almost immediate disappearance was a few days since confidently expected. Utter strangers to our climate they furnish a fresh and full repast for the (as we had hoped) now well nigh famished dis-

We should, perhaps, add, upon high medi cal authority, that the cases of yellow fever now occurring, especially among non-resident victims, are marked by a degree of malignancy not hitherto known in the progress of the epidemic.

NEW JERSEY.—The Whigs have nominated the following candidates for Congress: Isaiah D. Clawson in the First District, George R. Robbins in the Second District, and James Bishop in the Third District.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP. The Recent Elections -There is now little doubt in our mind that there is to be an antiadministration majority in the next House of Representatives of the United States, though no majority bent on carrying out any policy or measure differing from those known as the measures and policy of the Democratic party Abolitionism cannot possibly have a majority; nor can Native Americanism. Yet the temper of the majority in against the National Administration will be exceedingly bitter. As for a majority in favor of any one principle or measure known as Whig, the idea enters the head of me one well informed in politics. The opposition will have but a single bond of union-hostility to the National Administration. Its elements will be far more incongruous than those of which the first Congress of General Harrison's presidency was composed, which, it will be remembered, had but to meet, to split. In this case, more or less of he opposition will be so fresh from the Democratic party, as to render it certain that they will not act with the Greeleyites on any question involving a cardinal point of the Democratic faith. There will, however, be no balance the plans of the majority, inasmuch as it must check action on their part to carry out the doctrines laid down by the New York Tribune, as those of the new party of its oreation—the so-called "Republican party." We see no reason to believe that on any one point the Administration can be defeated; though, as before remarked, its declared encmies may be in a majority in the House. The some cases, and thus force some reputable people great danger is the creation of a Southern converted to Catholicism, has returned from to "fly off the handle" on election day. This party, which shall ultimately advocate a dissolution of the Union, per se. It is the legiti-

Southern opposition to the Administration

Every man in the House from the south will stand up to every measure which the Administration is known to favor. This unity of a great section of the Union, hitherto unknown

in either branch of Congress, will give them

moral strength, which, we think, will counter-mate results of the result of the vehement hostility to the South avowed by most of those who triumph in the recent elections at the Cuba.—It is understood in this city that the eratic party, as practiced, is very often made return of Concha to Cuba is a practical estoppel to fillibustering in that direction, for which of $20,000, to answer the charge of fitting out the country may be thankful. His undoubted popularity among the native inhabitants of the island, founded on the honest efforts to amelierate their condition, which characterised his former administration of the government there, it is thought among the public men here, will speedily bring about the man ifestation of a spirit of acquiescence in the existing condition of their affairs, such as has not been displayed since his return to Spain. While that disposition on the part of property holders in Cuba exists, fillibustering from the United States must be a sheer waste of money, energies, lives, anfi brains-its success being utterly hopeless. We need hardly assure the readers of the Star that we heartily rejoice at this prospect. Yet it is not thought here that Concha's return to the island will operate to postpone a change of government there-the acquisition of Cuba by the United States, by purchase. Letters are now being published in leading London papers, from Madrid, strongly advocating the sale of the island to the United States, which is quite a new feature in the controversy over its retention by Spain-quite. These writers, some of whom are evidently deeply interested in enabling Spain to maintain her financial credit, take the ground that it is extremely problematical whether she can much longer retain Cuba by force of arms; and that it is certain that the cost of such retention must swallow up all revenue which the island can possibly pay into the royal treasury. And, also, that the United States offers a liberal price for it-a ish government in developing the resources of old Spain, will be worth a thousand fold more to her future than the retention of the island, under existing circumstances, possibly can be.

There is no doubt in our mind, from the tenor of these letters and the position of the journals

in which they appear, that the Spanish bondholders, (English,) who dictate to the English

Queen's governments their Spanish policy, are beginning to appreciate the fact that Spain can no longer hold Cuba with profit to herself, and that if she much longer indulge in the idea of maintaining her authority in the island to gratify her pride, that will have a fall under circumstances in which she will lose the opportunity of obtaining (through the proposed sale) the means of a speedy regeneration of the mother kingdom. U. S. Court Houses and Post Offices -The present visit of the Secretary of the Interior and sostmaster General to the North, is understood to have reference to the selection of proper sites for the public buildings for Post Office and U.S. Courts purposes in the northern coast cities, which Congress at its last session ordered to be purchased or built. Those gentlemen will have a hard time of it doubtless, as they will find any number of "patriote" in each of the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, ready to urge on them their individual property, as precisely the spot which should be selected. Of one thing they may be certain. That is, that no speculation can be made out of Messrs. Campbell and McClelland, both of whom have long heads and are endowed with the capacity to say no-and to stick to it to the last We know no other two gentlemen better fitted to discharge such a trust in these times-when the world is afflicted sung the Star Spangled Banner before Irishmen were with the idea that the Government is the fat goose anxious to be picked by any and all with doubt that I am purely American?" Statute of Limitations no bar to Civil Action for Recovery of Money Fraudulently Obtained from the Treasury.—Two persons, Sweet and Davis, in Vermont, some years since obtained pensions for two widows on fraudulent papers. The statute of limitations barred proceedings for the same before the fraud was discovered. But the above-named persons were men of property, and civil actions have been commenced against them by Hon. L. B. Peck, United States district attorney, under the direction of the Commissioner of Pensions; and at the last term of the United States court in Vermont, judgment was entered against them for the amount of those two pensions, being $1,101.62. This decision is of great importance.

BALTIMORE CORRESPONDENCE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13, 1854. The recent political contest for Municipal officers n one sense of the word, has ended, and victory perches upon the Know Nothing standard. The finale, however, is not yet-a fierce and desperate struggle is in reserve. All the petty offices within the Mayor's gift must become bones of contention and applicants by scores and hundreds, lank and hungry, are already presenting their claims. Ther are more expectants, perhaps, in the 18th (the ban ner) Ward, th n would fill all the offices in all the principal cities of the Union, to say nothing of the other nineteen wards. The old hunkers of this new party, those who were competitors for the Mayoraland set aside, will, doubtless, feel that they have claims to a position in his honor's cabinet. The collectorship will be sought for by not a few. The jail, almshouse, penitentiary, mud-machines, &c. are in the aspiring eyes of several. It is rather soon yet to have made out the programme, but, taking authority from the Argus, either the Honorable John Wilmot or Mr. Kennard will be elevated to the collectorship. It is said, but with how much truth in for conjecture, that, since the election, quite a respectable number of the existing corporation officers are able to give the pass-words, secret signs, &c., of the mysterious order. One of them, I am told, shook hands with the Mayor elect, yesterday, and gave him a touch indicating that he knew something which was acknowledged in response by Mr. Hinks who put his left thumb to the tip of his nose, and said: "I know you-right stripe-guard of liberty No. 4-go ahead and keep moving." After which, the man walked off numble as a cricket, laughing rem one corner of his mouth, soliloquizing after this fashion: "Well, now, this Know Nothing ain so bad after all. A feller can come it over them easy. They call themselves Know Nothings, and of course they don't know nothing. I voted the Democratic ticket, and they don't know that. told them I supported their party, and they don't know but I spoke truth. I joined their order since the election; I can give the signs, countersigns, pass-words, &c. These are good credentials, and I ancy my chanses are good for being retained. am down on the Catholics, can lam the Dutch, fetch an Irishman up all standing, knock the horns off John Bull, burst the Scotch bag-pipes, trip a Frenchman, spread devastation among the Swiss guard, dely old Spain and her minions, scale the In fine, I am Brother Jonathan all over. I have slept with the American flag for a bed quilt. Whistled Yankee Doodle at the battle of North Point, and born. I play Washington's March on the bass drum, who is said to be attached to the police gang, under General Mitchell, certainly desires to be re-appointed The only objection may be that he knows too much, as unadulterated Know Nothingism would seem to be an indispensible qualification. The Democrats bear their defeat with tolerably good grace. They say they will "pick flint, and at 'em again," in the confid nt hope that one year's practical experience of Know-Nothingism will teach those who supported it a lesson not to be forgotten. A good many long faces may be seen, especially among those Democrats who bet largely and lost. Morris Gidleman, of the South street Green House, is said to have come out unfortunately, losing nearly every wager. He, however, does not complain much, as fortune smiled upon him in previous hazards on elections. The gentleman up town famil parly known as Nick Kelly, lost some two thousand dollars, but take, it good naturedly. He says he aid not know what the result would be, or he should have turned the tables. Not less than one hundred th usand dollars have changed hands in Baltimore on this occasion. The Know Nothing procession last night, in honor of the victory, exhibited an immense crowd. They marched through various streets with banners, musie, transparencies, &c., and behaved quite circus - sectly. I am told that their ranks are filling up rapidly and they have a steady eye upon the next presidency. This seems to be the prominent aim, if the combustive elements composing their order do not explode before that period arrives. It is said that the Mayor elect purposes visiting Philadelphia prior to his inauguration to get the que from Mayor Conrad, as to the medus operandi, appointments to office, test of qualifications, &c. NATIVITY OF MR. ULLMAN, THE KNOW NOTH-ING CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK. The New York Mirror says there appears to be much discussion as to Daniel Ullman's nativity. The New York Tribune says it is alleged that-Mr. Ullmann was born in Calcutte, that his parents were German Jews, and that he A new Peruvian Consul for the District of lirst came to Jefferson county, in this State, about the year 1810 As to the truth of these allegations we know nothing; but we remember, that when Mr. Ullman was a candidate for Attorney General, on the Whig ticket, in 1850, his friends were very careful to have his name spelt with a double n at the end, and to state at the same time in the journals that this mode of spelling came from the German origin of the candidate.

The Courier and Enquirer says

"Mr. Ullman is American by several descents, and was born at Wilmington, Delaware, where his family is much respected. His father advanced considerable sums of money o the Colonies during the revolutionary war. Mr. Ullmann was educated at Yale College. The Albany Evening Journal says:

"The Knew Nothing candidate for Governor (Ullmann) has written a letter to a "Dear Brother" in this city, saying that he was born at Wilmington, Delaware. This ought to be conclusive, and yet it conflicts with Mr. Ull mann's authority on former occasions. When student at Yale College he wrote in albums. Daniel Ullmann, Calcutta, India;' and when a boy at school at Lowville, Lewis county, he passed as of foreign birth. So that, like the order which he represents, the question of his birth is mystified." The Knickerbocker remarks:

" Mr. Ullman is not a German Jew but an Asiastic Jew. He comes from German par ents, however, and has seen the day when he did not know enough of the English language to translate 'brot' into bread." * " As some of our Know Nothing friends may doubt the statement which we have made above, we hereby offer to bet one hundred dollars to seventy-five that we can prove what we say, viz: that Daniel Ullman is not a na tive of the United States, and what is more never was Who takes the bet? Where are Hasbrouck and Olmstead? KIDWELL'S COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF BEECH DROP Or Cancer Root. CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR CAN-

CER, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, WHITE SWELLING, BRONCH! TIS, DROPSY, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING PROM THE IMPURITY

OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, George towa, D. C.

The estimate that is now accorded this preparetion by the medical profession and by oth ts competent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, fcotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated

J. L. Kidwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our repre sentation in Congres. I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Fottleof Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a let ter from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the di case is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of d stipetton in Scotland and England, including Prof s sors of Edinburg and Colleges, without relie'. The disea e was of three years standing, began in the right eneck, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britsin which no other medicine has Direct to William Dick, Esq., Callydean, by Leslie Scotland in care of Messes. Penroed, Clay & Co., Druggiste, N. York, who will forward it.

Mr. Flint is a man of great influence in his coun'y and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case.

Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform the t your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Screfula of a Caucerous form. So exten ive was the uters and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abate ment of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with the purpos- I beg all afflicted with Seroinia in any form to pas it.
